

Management Summary

Introduction

Hotelschool The Hague was founded in 1929 by HORECAF, the employers' organisation in the hotel and catering industry. Since its foundation, the Hotelschool has become an international school specialised in hospitality management with a 4-year international Bachelors degree course. This degree course is also offered as a 2-year International Fast Track programme. Since October 2001, the Hotelschool offers in collaboration with Rotterdam School of Management (RSM) Erasmus University a one-year Masters programme in Hospitality Management. In July 2002 Hotelschool The Hague became a member of 'The Leading Hotel schools of The World' (LSHW). Moreover, since September 2002 the Hotelschool has started a branch in Amsterdam.

The Bachelor degree course has been accredited by the Dutch Flemish Accreditation Organization (Nederlands Vlaamse Accreditatie Organisatie–NVAO). Graduates of Hotelschool The Hague have careers in hospitality companies around the world.

The Hotelschool is a small educational institute with approximately 1900 students and 190 staff members. The Hotelschool is an autonomous and independent institute which trains young people to become managers in the hospitality industry. About 100 lecturers and instructors, from The Netherlands and abroad, are responsible for teaching and training the students.

Degree courses

Bachelor Degree in Hospitality Management

The 4-year Bachelor degree course in Hospitality Management leads to the title of 'Bachelor of Business Administration in Hospitality Management' (BBA.HM). Since 2008, the Hotelschool offers it programme only in English for Dutch and international students.

International Fast Track Programme

The International Fast Track (IFT) programme allows students with a previous qualification in hospitality studies to follow a short two-year version of the Bachelors' programme, enabling them to build on and enhance their management skills.

Master in Hospitality Management, Rotterdam School of Management

In collaboration with Rotterdam School of Management (RSM) Erasmus University, Hotelschool The Hague offers a one-year course, Master in Hospitality Management. The programme is open to those who have a Bachelor's Degree in Hospitality Management. Graduates receive a Master's Degree in Hospitality Management (M.HM.) recognized by the RSM. Much of the course work is conducted in teams through which participants share their experiences and pursue their personal goals.

Mission

“Hotelschool The Hague is for (potential) students, its staff and international industry one of the leading and most innovative international business schools in the world, specialized in the hospitality industry “.

What are our plans for the future?

In the coming years, the Hotelschool will devote itself to the improvement of the quality of its courses and their execution. It will also work on a continual improvement in the quality of its management.

Due to its decisive policy on internationalisation and the consequent increase in the intake of foreign students, the Hotelschool will be able to reach intake targets for both branches for the coming school year. The international network will be extended further via, for instance, ‘The Leading Hotel Schools of the World’.

Hotelschool The Hague will continue on its current successful course. Hotelschool The Hague is proud of its prominent role in the realm of education in the hospitality sector.
