  - Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency (any pass grade)
  - Cambridge Certificate of Advanced English (grade A,B or C)
  - Cambridge First Certificate (grade A)For more information about the English tests please enquire at your local British or American embassy.
- In addition, a basic knowledge of accounting and economics is recommended.

Admission procedure:

- The admission procedure starts with registration via studielink.nl After registration you must fill in the application form and return it - together with the additional documents - to the Admissions Office of Hotelschool The Hague;
- Candidates who meet the admission requirements will be invited to a selection day at Hotelschool The Hague or one of the other locations outside the Netherlands;
- During the selection day candidates will be interviewed by representatives of the school (a lecturer and a student) and a representative from the industry. These interviews will provide an impression of the candidates' suitability for both the school and the industry;
- Candidates will have to take part in a group management assignment;
- Candidates who have not completed their secondary education with English as the language of instruction need to submit a sufficient TOEFL or IELTS test result or an adequate Cambridge certificate; please contact the Admissions Office if this is not possible. We will then be able to offer you an English test during the selection day.
- Candidates will be informed about the result of the selection procedure within four weeks after the selection day.

Fee for the selection/admission procedure:

- This fee, which covers enrolment and the cost of participating in the selection procedure, is € 114 (without an English test) and € 150 (incl. English test) for a selection day in The Netherlands and € 145 (without an English test) and € 181 (incl. English test) for a selection day outside The Netherlands. The application will be taken into consideration only if the application form is accompanied by proof of payment. You can pay the selection fee by means of an international money order, which is available from the post office. If you are making your payment from abroad you will need the following information:
